

Ada M. Evans

Master Teacher

Education

George Mason College of the University of Virginia - B.A., Magna cum Laude Spanish
George Mason University - Certification to teach secondary school
University of Virginia - Discipline for the Secondary Teacher Course
University of Virginia - Interpersonal Relations Course
Virginia Polytechnic Institute - School Law Course
Pensacola Christian College - Seminar
National Institute on Learning Disabilities - Workshop

Teaching Experience

35 years full time

Fairfax County Public Schools, four years – Spanish teacher

- Managed student learning for secondary levels 1 and 2
- Developed remedial courses and learning centers for the Spanish Department

Fairfax County Public Schools, one year – Substitute teacher

Tara-Reston Christian School, eight years – Teacher

- Managed learning in all subjects, Grades 2-4 (7 years)
- Member of teaching team, Grades 4-6, in English, Latin, Reading, Mathematics, and Composition (8 years)
- Designed curriculum for Grades 3-6
- Director of Junior Choir (13 years)
- Produced and directed annual school concerts

Tara-Reston Christian School, seven years – Vice-Principal, Upper Elementary School

- Developed curriculum materials for Latin, Grades 4-6; Language Arts, Grades 4-6; Mathematics, Grade 6.
- Coordinated learning-disabilities program with individual teachers
- Assisted in teacher training, Grades 4-6

Washington Language Institute/Stratford University, three years – ESL Professor

Edlin School, one year – Teacher

- Homeroom teacher for a combinational class, Grades 5-6
- Taught Language Arts, including literature, grammar, and composition, to Grades 5/6
- Taught Latin schoolwide, Grades K-8
- Produced and directed mid-winter play

Edlin School, one year – Principal

- Developed and administrated a new extended-learning program, which provided before-and-after-school classes
- Researched and recommended curriculum, Grades K-8
- Instructed and trained new personnel
- Maintained inventory of textbooks and building contents
- Wrote, designed, and produced parent handbook
- Assisted in editing the school literary magazine Syllables of Time
- Was faculty advisor to the student newspaper The Eagle's Aerie
- Ordered textbooks, schoolwide
- Wrote and edited written communications from the administration and teachers to the parent body

Korean Education Consulting Center – English Teacher

- Managed English classes, Grades 7-11
- Areas of instruction included grammar, literature, reading comprehension, composition, and vocabulary development.

- Instructed students in SAT and Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology entrance-testing preparation. Several students have achieved perfect or near-perfect scores on the verbal section of the Thomas Jefferson entrance test.

Other Work

Private Tutor – 35 years

Tutored students in academic areas, including English language arts, SAT prep, foreign languages, ESL, Latin, Spanish, and elementary mathematics. Students have included adults with learning disabilities.

Homeschool Teacher, twenty years – English Literature text-based courses, including World, American, and British Literature, Ancient and Classic through the Modern Ages, Grades 4-12.

Homeschool Teacher, expository and creative writing courses, Grades 4-12.

Recognition

1996-2007: Named three times for recognition by American's Who's Who Among Teachers (America's Best Teachers By America's Best Students)

Non-teaching experience

Oakton – Organist and choir director, Vale United Methodist Church